

Hustler Unwanted

All of us have an inner desire to be useful and protect the ones we love. This is a story that exemplifies the need to win the battles of usefulness, courage, and the need to protect the country, especially the ones we love. Some of the events in this book seem to be ordinary, everyday occurrences. Many people hope that there are forces at work that are bigger than any one of us, no matter what country we live in. We need the assurance that life for us and our family will not be totally controlled by wealthy people with big egos. Its the almightily God that give us hope to live in safety and keep American dream alive.
