

Fortunes of Fate

Set in the last years of the 19th century FORTUNES OF FATE is about Henry McAlister, a young man who after the deaths of his mother and father sets out for the recently discovered gold fields in the Klondike. A long perilous journey, first as a stowaway aboard a sailing ship then the frozen misery of the trail leading from Skagway to Lake Bennett. His journey continues down the Yukon River to the gold fields around Dawson, where treachery, deceit and murderous intentions are found. Surviving the gold fields and becoming rich beyond his dreams, Henry falls in love with a preachers niece, Katherine. The two soon become engaged and decide to journey to San Francisco, the first part of their trip southward begins aboard the Yukon Flyer, a pleasant romantic trip winding through the snow covered landscape until the train becomes caught in an avalanche and everyone on the train is stranded in the impassable mountains. Death, fear, starvation, desperation, cold and wolves threaten and a cannibalistic passenger is preying on the survivors. After being rescued, Henry and Katherine set sail for San Francisco, where intrigue with Katherines family could cost Henry his life, his family and his fortune.
